point 8 "Conclusions on multilinguism"

Multilinguism

The Council is due to adopt conclusions on multilingualism.

The Slovenian presidency drafted these conclusions following an informal ministerial meeting on multilingualism jointly organised and chaired by the presidency and the Commission in February 2008. The conclusions are aimed at providing further useful input to the forthcoming Commission proposal for a comprehensive policy framework on languages in the form of a communication, expected to be presented in the autumn 2008.
