EU High Representative for the CFSP, calls for restraint in East Jerusalem

Javier SOLANA, EU High Representative for the Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), issued the following statement today voicing concern about the recent clashes in East Jerusalem urging all parties to show restraint in East Jerusalem:

"I am very concerned about the recent clashes in East Jerusalem. I have been closely following the situation around the Al Aqsa mosque in recent days.

I would like to urge all parties to refrain from provocative actions that could further inflame tensions or lead to violence. Everyone must take action to avoid escalation. Our continued priority remains the re-launching credible negotiations in an atmosphere conducive to their success."
