Statement by High Representative Catherine Ashton on exchange of fire in Gaza Strip

Catherine Ashton, the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the Commission, made today the following statement:

“I am very concerned at the renewed exchange of fire in Gaza Strip and the South of Israel following the firing of rockets by Islamic Jihad from Gaza into Israel. I wholeheartedly condemn the indiscriminate targeting of civilians where ever they are. I call on all sides to respect the cease-fire brokered by Egypt.”
