

Draft Eurogroup in inclusive format annotated agenda¹
18 January 2021

Starting time 16:30, videoconference

1. Prospects of future relations with the US in the monetary and financial area.

The Eurogroup will exchange views on the global monetary and financial system and in particular on prospects for transatlantic cooperation. Lawrence H. Summers, Harvard professor and former US Secretary of the Treasury, has been invited to share his insights and experience with the Eurogroup.

The Eurogroup holds regular exchanges of views on the euro exchange rate and related subjects such as global imbalances, the internationalisation of the euro and these inform the Eurogroup President's international activities, notably within the G7.

2. Miscellaneous

¹ As a draft agenda this document is provisional and subject to change until adopted.