Statement by the spokesperson of High Representative Catherine Ashton on terrorist attacks in Turkey

The spokesperson of High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy/Vice President of the Commission Catherine Ashton issued a following statement today:

"The High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy/Commission Vice President strongly condemns a series of recent terrorist attacks in Turkey that claimed lives of a number of Turkish soldiers, military personnel and innocent civilians and have left many injured. There is no justification for such terrorist attacks. HR/VP expresses her deep sympathy and solidarity to the families of the victims and to the government and the people of Turkey."
