EU facilitator Robert Cooper condemns the attack on the Serbian delegation convoy in Priština

The EU facilitator for the dialogue between Priština and Belgrade, Robert Cooper has condemned the attack on the Serbian delegation convoy in Priština yesterday.

"We condemn the attack on the convoy of the Serbian delegation in Priština yesterday. Such acts do not comply with the spirit of the dialogue. The delegation was part of the working group for implementation of the agreements reached in the EU facilitated dialogue. The EU will continue to facilitate the Priština-Belgrade dialogue and the two sides are meeting today to further implementation. It needs to be clear though that this dialogue is not only about reaching agreements but more importantly about implementation and real delivery to benefit people on both sides. Implementation is also a key requirement for each party's progress in their path towards the EU integrations".
